Save on condition-related prescriptions

With the Co-pay/Co-insurance Waiver Program, you may not have to pay any co-pay or co-insurance for certain medications. If you are participating in and meet the requirements of a Disease Management Program for diabetes, asthma or Coronary Artery Disease (CAD), the program may cover co-pays or co-insurance for certain medications used to treat that condition.

This means you could save up to hundreds of dollars per year, depending on which medications you are taking over a 12-month period. View list of qualified medications.
